

John Campbell Bio

Singer/Producer/Actor John Campbell's music can be best described as Adult Contemporary/Soul with influences of jazz, gospel and r&b. John's voice has been described as a mixture of Luther Vandross and Seal with the jazzy sensibility of Gregory Porter. His 2012 Album release Soul Impressions received airplay on Jazz FM as well as CBC Metro Morning for his cover of Jann Arden's song "Good Mother". John has performed and starred in several stage and television productions such as "Dreamgirls", "Little Shop of Horrors", "Driving Miss Daisy", "4Square", "Flashpoint", "After Camelot", "Frankie Drake", and "Killjoys". Currently, John performs weekly at the renowned Windsor Arms Hotel. To find out more about John Campbell and his music, visit and connect with him at www.johncampbellmusic.ca.